

Mazen al-Hamada, a survivor of a Syrian detention camp, will speak following the film.

This event is sponsored by the Valley Syrian Relief Committee, in conjunction with the following co-sponsors:

Beit Ahavah
Belchertown United Church of Christ
Congregation B'nai Israel Tikkun Olam Committee
Congregation Sons of Zion
Critical Connections
Dr. Steven Heydemann & the Smith College Middle East Studies Program
Edwards Church
Episcopal Diocese of Western Mass.
Grace Episcopal Church
Hampshire Association of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ
Hampshire Mosque
Interfaith Council of Franklin County
Interfaith Organizing Network
Islamic Society of Western Mass.
Michel Moushabeck & Interlink Publishing
Peace & Justice of First Churches Northampton
Physicians for Social Responsibility/Pioneer Valley
Second Congregational Church Greenfield
Sojourner Truth School for Social Change Leadership
Temple Israel
Tikkun Olam Committee of the Jewish Community of Amherst
Traprock Center for Peace & Justice
Unitarian Universalist Society of Amherst

For further information, contact the Valley Syrian Relief Committee, Debbie Shriver, Sara Weinberger and Michael Kane, by calling Sara at 413-923-8144.

Inside Syria's Secret Detention Camps

What the World Needs to Know

Syria's Disappeared, a film by Sara Afshar (www.syriasdisappeared.com), tells the hidden story of tens of thousands of men, women and children disappeared by the regime of President Bashar al Assad into a clandestine network of detention camps, where they have been tortured and murdered.

The film depicts families of detainees searching for their loved ones, and international war crimes investigators fighting to bring the perpetrators to justice.

Mazen al-Hamada, a survivor of one of these camps, whose story is chronicled in this documentary, will speak and answer questions following the film.

Join us to learn what all of us can do to help those who continue to suffer in Syria.

Sunday, October 1
3:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m.

Edwards Church
297 Main Street
Northampton, MA

Free and open to the public.