

Free Public Forum

Rediscovering Jane Addams in a Time of Crisis

Saturday, November 11, 2017, 9 am – 4 pm

Edwards Church, U.C.C.

297 Main Street, Northampton, MA 01060

Supported by Mass Humanities In association with Traprock Center for Peace and Justice, Greenfield, Massachusetts and the Jane Addams Papers Project, Ramapo College of New Jersey

PANEL SESSIONS:

Morning:

- 1) Keynote: Why Jane Addams Matters Today
- 2) Today's Immigration and Refugee Crisis

Afternoon:

- 3) Social and Environmental Justice
- 4) Waging Peace: From Jane Addams to ICAN

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

LOUISE W. KNIGHT,

Evanston, Illinois

<http://www.louisewknight.com/>

Author:

Citizen: Jane Addams and the Struggle for Democracy (2006)
Jane Addams: Spirit In Action (2010)

Jane Addams (1860-1935)

Co-founder, Chicago's Hull House (1889), feminist, suffragist, internationalist, political activist, pacifist and prolific author. A disciple of Lincoln, Tolstoy, and Gandhi, Addams was an astute critic of Gilded Age capitalism and advocate for women, children, immigrants, and other vulnerable people. In 1931 she was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize.

Space is limited — please register online at: <https://www.facebook.com/RediscoveringJaneAddams/>