

You are invited to take part in a critically important program:

Facing the Nuclear Threat: Overcoming Fear and Taking Action A Conversation with Dr. Ira Helfand

Sunday, April 15, 2018

3:00-5:00 pm

Congregation B'nai Israel
253 Prospect Street
Northampton, MA 01027

For more information contact spw128@comcast.net

Dr. Ira Helfand has led two organizations that were recipients of the Nobel Peace Prize. He is a member of the International Steering Group of the International Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons, or ICAN, which was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 2017. Helfand was in Oslo for the ceremony. He is also co-president of International Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear War. That group, which founded ICAN in 2007, received the Nobel Peace Prize in 1985.

This event is free and open to the public.
This program is appropriate for adults and teens.
Light refreshments will be served.

Co-sponsored by:

Beit Ahavah
Edwards Church
Grace Episcopal Church
Interfaith Opportunities Network of Amherst Area
Physicians for Social Responsibility

St. John's Church
Temple Israel
The Resistance Center
Tikkun Olam Committee of the Jewish Community of Amherst
Traprock Center for Peace and Justice